18 AARON FORD, Attorney General of Nevada;

JOINT STIPULATION TO REQUEST
STATUS CONFERENCE REGARDING
REMAND ORDER

20 Defendants.
21

23 The Ninth Circuit ordered a limited remand of this case to the Court on May 26,
24 2023, with directions that the Court conduct the proceedings necessary to make the factual
25 findings specified in the remand order for purposes of aiding in the Ninth Circuit's
26 resolution of the claims in the appeal pending before it. Palmer v. Sisolak, 9th Cir. Case 27 No. 22-15645, Dkt. No. 37. The order stated that the Court "shall make these findings at 28 its earliest convenience." Id. at 3. On June 22, 2023, the Court ordered the parties to file a

1 joint status report that “proposes a series of next steps in this case that will develop the
2 factual and historical record on the Second Amendment issue to resolution in line with the 3 Ninth Circuit’s order.” Dkt. No. 73 at 2. The parties did so on July 24, 2023, proposing a
4 schedule of fact discovery (written discovery and fact witness depositions), expert discovery
5 (as either party may deem necessary), briefing of the parties in which each side proposes a
6 set of findings based on the record developed, and, if the Court desires, a hearing at which 7 the parties present further argument and/or address further questions of the Court. Dkt.
8 No. 79. The joint status report further stated that “the Parties are amenable to appearing 9 before the Court for a status conference if the Court would find it helpful in setting the 10 parameters of the discovery and briefing period.” Id. at 2. To that end, the parties jointly 11 stipulate to requesting a status conference to finalize and begin implementing the process
12 necessary to address the issues on which the Ninth Circuit has ordered findings be made.
